

Description of appearance and character

This material was collected by the teacher of Foreign Languages
Simakina Yulia Aleksandrovna

Nº3: and now about character

- How would you define the concept of "character"?
- What are your guesses as to how a person's character might develop?

Nº3: and now about character

<https://www.thindifference.com/2016/01/what-builds-character/>

English Dictionary +Plus Shop

Нажмите F11, чтобы выйти из полноэкранного режима English-Polish

Meaning of character in English

character
noun
UK /ˈkær.əkt.ər/ US /ˈkær.əkt.ər/

character noun (QUALITY)

[C or U]
the particular combination of qualities in someone or something that makes them or it different from others:

- Politeness is traditionally part of the British character.
- out of character It would be very out of character (= not typical) of her to lie.
- in character His recent behaviour is very much in character (= typical).
- One of the joys of being a parent is watching the child's character develop.
- The idea was to modernize various aspects of the house without changing its essential character.
- It's not in his character to be (= he is not usually) jealous.

[U] More meanings of character

qualities that are interesting and unusual:

- of character a hotel of character
- I'd prefer an old place with a bit of character.
- Old books are said to give a room character.
- As people grow older, their faces acquire more character.

[U]

the quality of being determined and able to deal with difficult situations:

- strength of character She has such strength of character.

WORD OF THE DAY

area narrow modernized lost its old

COLLOCATIONS TRANSLATIONS

(Definition of character from the Cambridge Advanced Learner's Dictionary & Thesaurus © Cambridge University Press)

character | AMERICAN DICTIONARY

character
noun
US /ˈkær.əkt.ər/

character noun (QUALITY)

[C/U]
the particular combination of things about a person or place, esp. things you cannot see, that make that person or place different from others:

- [C] The idea was to modernize the house without changing its homey character.

[C/U]

Character is often used in a positive way to mean qualities that are interesting and unusual:

- [U] It's a theater with a lot of character.

character noun (PERSON)

[C] • LITERATURE

a person represented in a movie, play, or story:

- The story revolves around three main characters.

[C]

A character is also a person, esp. with reference to a particular quality that the

For those who are interested in the formation of character and its types, see links to articles

<https://www.lifepersona.com/character-definition-how-shape-and-types>

Nº2: and now let's talk

try to describe your usual behavior and character traits that you know about or have been told about

<https://puzzle-english.com/directory/character-traits>

<https://loveenglish.org/character-traits/>

